Throughout the month of December, the Indiana Charter School Board will host public hearings in various communities throughout the state to collect input on proposals to open charter schools.

The public also will have the opportunity to submit testimony in writing at the time of each hearing or electronically by emailing comments to charter-applications@doe.in.gov. The deadline to email comments for each proposed school is 8:00 p.m. EST on the day of the corresponding public hearing.

To review applications and collect more information, visit the Indiana Charter School Board website at www.doe.in.gov/idoelcsb.
